OUR SOLUTIONS WILL TRANSFORM YOUR REVERSE SUPPLY CHAIN GIVING YOU A COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

PRODUCT RETURNS

DRS processes millions of units annually to the specific, individual requirements of each one of our clients. Our industry leading software application will enable us to customize your unique returns solution that will save you time, money and resources.

PRODUCT REMARKETING

Look to the most trusted liquidation partner in the industry to recover the highest value on your product from our broad base of pre-approved secondary market buyers.

SUPPLY CHAIN SERVICES

Let DRS perform statistically sound sampling, modeling and collection of data to be utilized to enhance your current returns management program. Don't have a program? Let the experts at DRS design one for you that will eliminate waste and inefficiencies within your supply chain.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Tired of not knowing exactly what you are paying for when reconciling your returns related claims? Our service performs a rigorous auditing process that ensures timely and accurate reimbursement which helps to prevent the revenue dilution that often accompanies the claims reimbursement process.

PRODUCT RECALLS

Whether voluntary or mandatory, the risks and costs associated with recalls can be substantial. Our solution provides seamless, end-to-end- execution with a focus on the factors that will help to minimize risk while controlling costs, including; preparedness, coordination, rapid response, efficient processing and detailed reporting.

OS&D SERVICES

Allow DRS to help you take control of your overage, short & damaged (OS&D) inventory with a service built on the strategy of rule-based disposition focused on recovery vs. cost.

BULK DESTRUCTION

Our clients rely on our reverse logistics capabilities and infrastructure to handle their bulk and itemized destruction. The experts at DRS will custom design a program with the desired amount of processing required to facilitate cost-effective, compliant destruction across all your waste streams (i.e., non-landfill destruction, hazardous, PSE, etc.).

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Reverse logistics is an exception-based business. No one knows this better than DRS because that's what we do every day. No matter the type or the size, no project is too simple or complex nor too small or large.

BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE

At DRS, we understand the power of your data. This is why data access and analytics are standard with most services. We are committed to providing our customers with unlimited access to their data and helping them to harness that data to drive organizational results.

CONSULTING SERVICES

The experts at DRS will provide you with the right strategy and tools to design, implement and execute the precise solution that will optimize your reverse logistics performance and save your company significant money.
